

Cost of TASC services

BizPlan HRA: When a Self-Employed business has only ONE benefit eligible employee. The business owner uses an HRA to take his/her existing family medical expenses as a business expense through an HRA. This is called a BizPlan. Cost for this is $395 annual.

FlexSystem FSA: When a small business has more than 1 benefit eligible employee, and is looking to make individual health premiums and other eligible FSA expenses tax deductible. This is the program used when breaking a small group apart and reimbursing the employees for premiums via defined contribution.

Fees for FlexSystem:

# of EEs	Annual Fee
2-5	$600
6-12	$900
13-20	$1200
21+	$5/EE/month
